

Painting on the Island of Alonissos

26 August to 1st September 2017

The turquoise blue of the sea, the deep red of the cliffs, the silvery green of the olive trees, a centuries old church, phantastic plants and vistas lend a unique atmosphere to the island which will inspire you to express your emotions and views through painting.

The workshop is intended to offer support and know-how, and the freedom you need to unfold creatively.

- ✦ Painting 3 hours daily in the morning or in the afternoon*
- ✦ Sketching and drawing as you wish*
- ✦ Materials: Acrylic colours, water colours, pens and pencils*
- ✦ Where? At various locations such as an olive grove, a large garden with a lemon tree and following small paths on hiking tours to a tavern by the sea, to the old village and on top of the mountain*
- ✦ Exchange of ideas while viewing images and talking about art*

Painting workshop and holiday stay accompanied by Karin Baedeker, course tutor and Waltraud and Martin Alberti

Basic price: Stay and accomodation 690,- Euro/double room (single room with overlay), board and 120,- Euro for painting workshop included (travel expenses not included)
